President's Message

Wow! When the CDA says it is going to have a year end awards party, it sure does. We had close to sixty people attend this year's event. A special thanks to you, our members, for making the year end awards party so special. We also cannot go without giving thanks to Fern and her husband Barry for opening up their home to so many people. Thank you Pat Sheeran for the big ribbons and special trophies. Pam Bilodeau and all of her helpers did a great job of feeding us. We had a great assortment of desserts for everyone to enjoy provided by all that attended. Everyone had an evening full of fun, food, awards and socializing. Visit the website to see the pictures that our expert cameraman Barry took. See you next year!

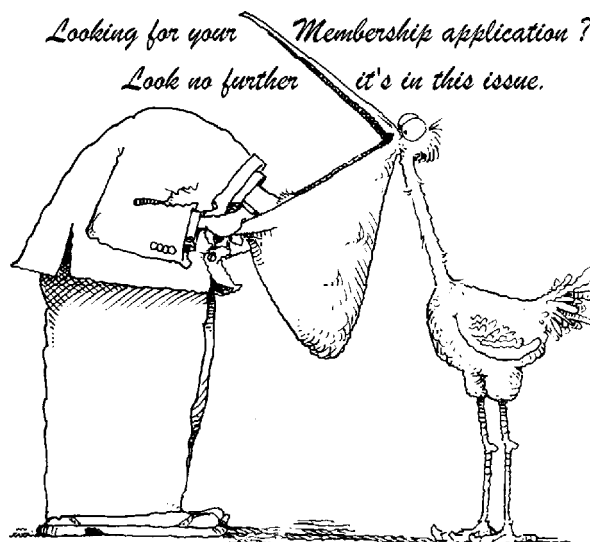

It is that time of the year where we all should all be making sure we have renewed our membership to CDA for 2001. Please contact Pam Bilodeau who is in charge of membership at 860.585.8693 or takhads@aol.com to renew or join today. You can also visit our website at www.geocities.com/~ct_dress_assn and download the form.

Check our membership list for 2001 on page 2 of the Centerline. If your name is not there, you have not renewed your membership for 2001 and this will be the last issue of the Centerline that you receive. So remember to renew and keep your Centerline and other benefits for your CDA membership going.

What some people don't realize is that the CDA from time to time likes to make donations to worthy organizations. At this time I would like to mention that the CDA has donated $150.00 to the Human Society and $150.00 to High Hopes in Old Lyme, CT.

Our next board meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, March 7 at 7:30 p.m. at Fern's house. Looking forward to seeing you there.

Corrie

Are You A Missing Person?

Uh, oh!! Don't see your name on this list (compiled on February 25th)? Did you forget to renew your CDA membership? Boo, hoo! This will be your last issue of the Centerline, you won't be eligible for year-end awards, and worse your copy of the 2001 Omnibus, practically hot off the presses, will molder lonely in it its carton. Better root through all that stuff on your desk and find your renewal form - or use the one in this Centerline. We'll be waiting for you!

Young American Equestrians to Train with Internationally-Renown Dressage Trainer

The United States Dressage Federation (USDF) announces the return of Germany's Conrad Schumacher as the featured clinician for a series of Advanced Young Rider dressage clinics. Held in five locations throughout the United States, each clinic will be run as a three-day intensive learning program, with individual lessons for each rider on all three days of the clinic. Auditors, both juniors and adults, are strongly encouraged, as the clinics are an unparalleled opportunity to learn from one of the master equestrian trainers of today.

Locations and Dates:

- Washington: March 16-18, 2001
Lane's End, Redmond, WA
Gail Van Demoere, local organizer
- California: March 19-21, 2001
Shadow Ridge Equestrian Center, Highland, CA
Carol Plough, local organizer
- Illinois: March 23-25, 2001
Tempel Farms, Wadsworth, IL
Angie Bodnar & Linda Leffingwell, local organizers
- South Carolina: April 2-4, 2001
Farewell Farm, Blythewood, SC
Lindsey Perrow, local organizer
- New York: April 5-7, 2001
Glenden Dressage, Bedford, NY
Lendon Gray, local organizer

"We are very happy to be able to expand this program to five areas of the United States," said Kimberly Travis, Liaison to the Advanced Young Rider Council. "This program has made a tremendous impact in the quality of riding. The riders level of expertise has really grown in the years that Mr. Schumacher has been teaching here."

Conrad Schumacher is a trainer of European Championship, World Championship, and Olympic Riders, including Ellen Bontje, and Sven and Gonnellen Rothenberger. He coached Sven and Gonnellen to their silver medal team finish and Sven to his individual bronze medal in the 1996 Olympics. From 1979 to 1989, he trained five European Young Rider Championship first place team and individual medal winners. He has been the official trainer to the British World Equestrian Games and Olympic teams. He has been the exclusive trainer to the USDF Advanced Young Riders. In 1999, he conducted the 1999 USDF National Dressage Symposium, and will be the featured speaker at the 2000 USDF Trainers Conferences.

Rider application deadline is February 9, 2001. Auditors may register until February 23, 2001 by calling USDF at 402/434-8550. The cost of auditing is $30 per day or $70 for the three-day package. Auditor registration will also be accepted at the door for the same price.

The United States Dressage Federation (USDF) is a non-profit, tax-exempt corporation made up of more than 31,000 members throughout all 50 states and serves as the national voice of the dressage community. Through volunteer directors, committee members and an office staff in Lincoln, Nebraska, USDF promotes dressage, provides education, and rewards excellence in dressage competition performance. Membership in USDF is achieved by joining one of the 129 affiliated dressage groups, or by joining USDF directly to receive additional benefits of membership. For more information, contact USDF at PO Box 6669; Lincoln, NE 68506, or call 402/434-8550, e-mail usdressage@usdf.org, or visit www.usdf.org.

2001 Year End Award Program

CDA's objective is to make our members happy they're involved in the organization and eager to participate in our programs. The awards program now is more inclusive, the qualification criteria are easier to interpret and follow, and the score reporting process is less cumbersome.

We recognize it's difficult for most of us to compete all over the state or region for an entire show season. Work, family and other commitments mean some CDA members can only do a handful of shows. Also, recognized show scoring, even at lower levels, has become more demanding and many amateur and junior riders who compete successfully in tests one or two at a particular level may not be ready for the higher tests, but nevertheless are the true stalwarts of our competitions. You deserve to be recognized.

CDA Year End Awards are a distinct honor. Winners receive ribbons for champion, reserve champion and third through sixth places. Champions also receive customized commemorative gifts. We hope all CDA members who make the time, effort, and expenditure to show in 2001 will participate in our new, improved program!

Here are guidelines for 2001:

Schooling Competitions

Open to all CDA members who compete in: (1) CDA-sponsored schooling shows, (2) USDF League shows and (3) schooling shows whose prize lists appear in the CDA Omnibus. Please note: Shows listed only as part of advertisements will not count toward CDA awards. The prize lists must be separately published as well.

Riders must be CDA members before entering the show, or they can join the same day before their first class.

Awards may go only to the same horse/rider combination. Championship awards cannot be earned by the same horse/rider combination more than twice at each level.

Three scores from at least two different shows must be earned. Scores from at least two different judges per level and at least three tests. At least one score must be from a CDA schooling show; the others may come from USDF league or schooling shows whose prize lists appear in the CDA Omnibus. For example, a rider can submit two scores from two tests of the same level from one judge at a CDA schooling show, and one score at the same level from a different judge from a schooling show whose prize list is published in the CDA Omnibus.

Scores must be a minimum of 50%.

Awards will be based on the average score of the best three tests.

Awards will be divided by Junior, Adult Amateur and Open. PLEASE be sure to specify your category!!!

Categories are: (1) Introductory, (2) Training, (3) First, (4) Second Level and Above.

Riders should submit their scores at the end of the competition season. The score submission form MUST be used to document show names, dates, level/tests within the level, judge, score, etc. Write or type all information CLEARLY.

We will not require the show secretary to sign the form. We will require the rider to attest via his or her signature (or a parent's signature if the rider is a junior) that the scores are genuine.

Recognized Competitions

Open to all active CDA members who compete in AHSA recognized dressage shows.

Riders and horse owners must be CDA members at the time of the show. (The rider may count as owner if he or she has a leased horse.) Scores earned prior to this will not count.

Awards may go only to the same horse/rider combination. Awards cannot be earned by the same horse/rider combination more than twice at each level.

Five scores at the same level from at least three different shows must be earned. Scores from at least three different judges per level and at least five tests. The rider does not have to compete at the highest test in the level.

Scores from tests at different levels cannot be combined (e.g. a rider may not submit three scores from Training level and two from First level for one award), although riders who meet all the criteria at more than one level can receive awards at both levels.

Scores must be a minimum of 52% for Training through Fourth levels, and 50% for FEI. For FEI tests with more than one judge, the scores will be averaged and count as one score.

Awards will be based on the average score of the best five tests.

Awards will be divided by Junior, Adult/Amateur and Open categories. PLEASE be sure to specify your category!!!

Riders must submit their scores at the end of the competition season. The score submission form MUST be used to document show names, dates, level/tests within the level, judge, score, etc. Write or type all information CLEARLY.

We will not require the show secretary to sign the form. We will require the rider to attest via his or her signature (or a parent's signature if the rider is a junior) that the scores are genuine. Riders also may submit copies of their official show results summaries as provided by the USDF.
